PEOPLE IN RAGE; TAFT CALLED DOWN.

SUPPRESSED WAR NEWS CAUSES WAVE OF RAGE.

MAJOR GENERAL WOOD IS BEING SEVERELY CRITICIZED AND
HOBSON BLAMED FOR START-ING THE TROUBLE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17—A wide trail of discord has been left in the administration ranks as a result of the suppressed "war scare" report of Secretary of War Dickinson. President Taft is in a rage about the matter and has "called down" Secretary Dickinson, who, it is said, may resign as a result. Major General Wood is also severely criticized for his share in the fiasco and the relations between the White House and the war department have been severely strained.

Congressman Hobson, of Alabama, is being blamed for the whole trouble by the administration, which overlooks the fact that there are others even more radical than the representative from Alabama. Developments are being closely watched by all members of Congress.

THREE BROTHERS KILLED IN FIERCE FAMILY FIGHT.

TROUBLE AMONG RELATIVES IN

HAVE BEEN STARTED BY WIFE

HEFLIN, Ala., Dec. 17—Three brothers, Whack, Richard and Alf Benfield, were killed in a family fight at Hopewell, Cleburne county, 20 miles distant from this place, last night. It is reported that the trouble was started by the wife of one of the dead brothers. The county sheriff started for the scene early this morning.

NEWARK, Ohio, Dec. 17—Manella Wright was today found guilty of manslaughter for the killing of Carl Ethrington, a private detective several months ago. Ethrington was gathering evidence against saloons. He was arrested, the jail stormed and he was taken out and lynched by a mob.

LOCOMOTIVE EXPLODES; FIREMAN MEETS DEATH.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., Dec. 17—A huge camel-back locomotive exploded at Cresthill today and Fireman Howley was killed instantly. The passengers on the train were thrown into a panic, but none were injured. The explosion is said to have been caused by a frozen steam pipe.

EMPEROR PREACHES TEMPERANCE.

ESTABLISHES MILK STATION FOR WORKMEN AND TOURISTS.

MILK FROM THE ROYAL HERDS TO BE FURNISHED AT COST
PRICE TO ALL WHO CARE TO DRINK IT.

BERLIN, Dec. 17—There is no end to the surprises which the Kaiser gives his beloved subjects, whom he always expects to be interested in the same subjects which are filling his own mind, at this particular time. Just now it is temperance, and to show his practical interest in the cause, the Kaiser has established a milk canteen at his model farm and pottery works at Cadzand for the accommodation of working men passing to and from their work, as well as for the benefit of the numerous tourists who visit the town. Milk will be supplied at cost price from the royal herds. Any profit, which unwittingly results, will be turned over to the Prussian State founding homes.

The Kaiser never loses an opportunity to preach temperance. There is, of course, no truth in the statements that the Emperor himself is a total abstainer. He has always drunk in moderation, and still does so, although he has accustomed himself to imbibing less than he did as a younger man. His bosom friend, Prince Max Egon zu Furstenberg, advertises on every bottle of beer produced at the princely brewery in Danau-Eschingen, that it is the "table beverage of His Majesty, the German Emperor and King of Prussia."

RACE TIPSTER IS FINED; JUDGE SOAKS HIM $1,250.

MAN AT JACKSONVILLE CLAIMED
HE WOULD GIVE INFORMATION
AS TO WINNER OF RACE
TEHRE FEBRUARY 17.

JACKSONVILLE, Dec. 17—Withdrawing his plea of not guilty of defrauding and entering as a substitute a plea of nolo contendere, Walter A. Woolf, the race horse "tipster," was fined $1,000 and costs, amounting to $1,250, in the United States court here yesterday. The fine and costs were both promptly paid.

The indictment against Woolf, which was returned by the grand jury last winter was to the effect that he had devised a scheme to defraud divers persons by representing in letters and circulars that he would leave Jacksonville February 12 for Chicago to place a $5,000 wager for the owner of a race horse which would start in the race February 17. The letters sent out by Woolf suggested to his correspondents that he should send him at Chicago deposits of $2 or $5 and agree to pay the balance when he furnished the name of the sixth winning race horse.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17—All trans-Atlantic steamship lines are menaced by a strike which would practically tie up all ocean traffic.

The longshoremen have delivered an ultimatum demanding more pay and threatening to quit January 1 if their demands are not granted.

The steamship companies are preparing for trouble, which indicates the demands of the men will be ignored.

LORIMER IS CLEARED; NO PROOFS PRESENTED.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17—The Senate committee on privileges and elections held a meeting today to consider the report on the charges against Senator Lorimer of Illinois. Great secrecy was maintained, but it is generally understood that Senator Lorimer was cleared on the grounds of no proof.

INJURED IN COLLISION WITH CAR

BICYCLE RIDER RUN DOWN BY AUTOMOBILE.

A. STAPLES THROWN FROM HIS WHEEL AND BADLY BRUISED
WHILE RIDING FROM IVY LANE
THIS AFTERNOON.

A Staples, senior member of the firm of Staples & Cullen, was run down shortly after midday by a colored man driving an automobile, just as he was riding out of Ivy Lane to Beach street on his way from his home to the office of the firm.

The car turned into Ivy Lane at a high rate of speed. The driver blew his horn as soon as he saw Mr. Staples but he was then only fifteen or twenty feet distant.

Mr. Staples tried to avoid him by dodging across the lane but the wire fence protecting the new cement sidewalk along Anthony Brothers' building prevented his escape and the car struck him throwing him to the ground and wrecking his bicycle.

Fortunately Mr. Staples escaped serious injury, but was badly bruised and shaken, his worst hurt being by the spring of the auto striking him in the abdomen leaving a bad bruise and soreness.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17—With four people dead and many injured victims in the hospitals New York is still gripped by the intense cold weather today. One man was found wandering about the streets in a raving mania by his suffering with the cold. The charitable institutions are jammed with the poor people seeking shelter.

DISAGREEMENT BY JURY IN CASE OF ERBSTEIN.

CHICAGO, Dec. 17—The jury in the trial of Charles Erbstein, accused of "jury fixing" in the second trial of Lee O'Neil Browne in connection with the Lorimer senatorial election, disagreed today and was discharged. The vote stood 7 to 5 for acquittal.

REBELS WIN ANOTHER BATTLE WITH FEDERALS.

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 17—The Mexican Federal troops suffered another defeat at Hacienda, Chihuahua, just across the Rio Grande river from Marfa, Texas, and a large number of the regulars were killed.

HUMAN CORPSES AS TARGETS USED BY ARMY IN GERMANY.

STICK UP WHOLE ARMIES OF DEAD MEN AND WOMEN ON FIELDS TO SEE HOW FAR THE BULLETS PENETRATE.

BERLIN, Dec. 17—May the corpses of human beings be used for experiments in the penetration of rifle bullets? This question is being debated as the result of revelations that the dead bodies of paupers, criminals, poor hospital patients, etc. are given to the German military authorities for experimental purposes. Whole armies of dead men and women have, on occasion, been stuck up on manoeuvre fields to ascertain how bullets penetrate them at a distance. Many maintain that his practice is sacrilegious, in as much as it disturbs the dead when they should be lying buried. An agitation is being organized, and the aid of Protestant pastors, Catholic priests and Jewish rabbis is revoked to combat the military men on this point.

These revelations produced further that live animals are also used for the same kind of experiments, and this discovery has mobilized another section of humanitarians against the military authorities.

AMBASSADOR WILSON SAYS MOVEMENT IS SPREADING.

FEDERALS DEFEATED BY REVO-LUTIONISTS AT LAJUNTA, WITH SEVERAL HUNDRED KILLED OR CAPTURED.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17—Ambassador Wilson, of Mexico, telegraphed the state department today that the recent report that Guerrero in Chihuahua, had been captured by the Mexican government troops, is untrue. The revolutionists still control Guerrero and Ambassador Wilson says the revolt is spreading in Northern Mexico.

A report has also been received confirming the defeat of the federals by the revolutionists, at Lajunta, where a thousand regulars were ambushed and more than 200 killed or wounded and 150 taken prisoners.

ELIZABETH, N. J., Dec. 17—The Hotel Hungaria was burned today. Valentine Barthody and William McLaughlin, firemen, were killed in fighting the flames. Men, women and children were rescued from the burning building by leaping from windows into blankets held by firemen in the streets below. The loss will amount to about $60,000.

WITH BOTH LEGS BROKEN MAN DIES OF STARVATION.

INSTRUCTOR TRIES TO CLIMB A MOUNTAIN PEAK ALONE AND HIS BODY IS FOUND SEVERAL WEEKS AFTERWARD.

VIENNA, Dec. 17—Prof. Oskar Mahler, of the Academy of Iglo, in Hungary, has met with a terrible death in the Tatra mountains. October 23 he started to climb the Baranggor peak alone, despite the warnings that a guide was necessary. He never returned, and though search parties were sent out no trace of him was found. Only recently a party of climbers discovered his body terribly emaciated with both legs broken, in a shelter hut some distance from the peak.

The professor had evidently lost his way and broken his legs in a fall among the rocks. Despite his terrible injuries he must have dragged himself to the shelter hut and there been starved to death.

Mrs. Grover Gwinmer went to Port Orange yesterday afternoon to visit her parents. She expected to return today.

THE BERLIN POLICE SETTING FORTH THAT HAPPINGS ARE A GRAVE PERIL TO THE PUBLIC.

BERLIN, Dec. 17.—The Berlin police yesterday issued a decree today setting forth that happenings of this description constitute a "grave peril" to the public, especially in tramway cars. Herr von Jagow calls upon the women of Berlin either to confine themselves to lines which do not protrude beyond the brim of their hats, or at least to wear guards on the ends of long pins.

"I venture to express the hope," concludes Herr von Jagow, "that it will only require this hint on my part to do away with this mischievous and dangerous habit, and that it will not be necessary for me to resort to other police measures to eradicate it." The Lokal Anzeiger remarks that the modern woman is unlikely to tolerate any dictation affecting her wearing apparel even from so mighty an authority as Herr von Jagow.

The annual meeting of the house of governors threatens to become serious in its results. The meetings are not going to be all talk if the governors have their way. They want some real results. At the meeting held in Frankfort and Louisville, Ky., many reform measures were advocated by the score and more governors who attended the five days' sessions. Governor Harmon of Ohio voiced the sentiment of the meeting when he declared that much good will result from the annual meetings if the governors do not grow impatient and expect the public to accept reforms in a night. New Jersey promises to entertain the governors at their next meeting. The question of electing senators by popular vote and the arranging of a universal divorce law are but two of the many points that the governors have discussed and will continue to discuss. Each governor is expected to report the sentiment of his own state in favor of any popular reform.

A Labor of Love.
 "The late Senator Wilkinson Call," said a Jacksonville lawyer, "believed in early marriages and in the habits of industry, sobriety and economy that such marriages induce. 'I once heard him say in an address to the youth of Jacksonville: 'It is true, and we should be glad it is true, that many a young man has been sentenced to hard labor for life simply for kissing a pretty girl.'"

The Two Versions.
 The editor was trying to placate an indignant statesman. "All we said about you in the paper, Mr. Krakajak," he assured him, "was that you seemed to have an inadequate sense of proportion." "Not by a blamed sight!" roared the caller. "What you said about me was that I seemed to have an inadequate proportion of sense!"—Chicago Tribune.

Napkins.
 Napkins became popular in France sooner than in England. At one time it was customary at great French dinners to change the napkins at every course, to perfume them with rosewater and to have them folded a different way for each guest.

Plato Vindicated.
 "The author of genius," said William Dean Howells, "expresses the thoughts of his time. He speaks out those things that his generation has all along been thinking, but thinking silently and perhaps a little mistily."

"An author of transcendent genius speaks the thought of all time. For example, one summer at Sunapee I lent a volume of Plato to a lean, shrewd farmer. When the volume was returned I said: 'Well, how did you like Plato?' 'First rate,' the farmer answered. 'I see he's got some of my ideas.'"

Grunt-who-will Tower.
 Anne, the duchess in wooden shoes, who brought Brittany in the pocket of her wedding gown to her husband, the king of France, kept the government for herself, and when the bishop of St. Malo protested against the stronghold which she built to cow the too independent Maloons she carved on her tower the irreverent inscription, which may still be read there, "Grunt who will, so shall it be; 'tis my pleasure," and the tower "Grunt Who Will" (Quicquid Grogue) it remains to this day.

WERE COVERED WITH YELLOW

GOVERNMENT RESERVATION
STUDIES BY THE COURT.

Before next Friday, Congress should gather in the House chamber to discuss whether this week is the change in controlling words on a government's infrastructure and those at first were to pass by the court, which, while it is not in the past, would almost certainly be a loss, and yet that that is a far more important comparison with the fact of a prohibition being enacted in the past.

The defendants were accused of changing the bathroom into a kitchen and attempting to turn it into a greenhouse, conservatory and glassed gillie to the central hallway.

B. J. Francis, founder of the Imperial, drove closer to the center of the race but could not control the car, resulting in a crash. He injured the members of his team, including himself, and the owner of a automobile parked in the Imperial, and gathered them all the time passing through the street of the Imperial.

Mr. Francis worked tirelessly to overcome the obstacles of a busy life as he compromised the true nature of the case, which is the fact of the kind in this country, and acting as the counterpart to evidence for the fact.

Richard R. Dodge, of New York, advertising manager of the "American," the second daily paper published by the United Wireless Company, was in the city Thursday morning bringing the details of a consolidation of the wireless companies.

Mr. Larkin stated that the Cleveland office would have a large loan for 1,000,000 and would communicate with members of the executive committee, meeting within 10 minutes, as well as with local members.

One of the main features of the establishment of the station at Cleveland is in the fact that parties like Ward, Sherman, Wood and others, in the United States, were able to enter the committee at the local level, thus being the power through the members.

Mr. Larkin departed previously because for Jacksonville on his own affairs.

CASE ENDED; BOYS FINED. DUPONT BOYS PLEAD GUILTY IN FEDERAL COURT.

WERE CHARGED WITH KILLING
AND DISTURBING BIRDS ON A
FINED BY THE COURT.

John and Julian Dupont pleaded guilty in the federal court at Jacksonville this week to the charge of disturbing birds on a government reservation and fines of $10 were imposed by the court, which, with the costs in the case, would amount to quite a sum, and yet the fine is of but small importance compared with the fact of a conviction being secured in the case.

The defendants were actually charged in the indictment with killing and disturbing birds on a government reservation and pleaded guilty to the record charge.

This is the case, it will be remembered, where these young men, John and Julian Dupont of St. Augustine, while passing through Mosquito Inlet Reservation one day in March 1928, with their launch, fired upon a flock of pelicans, scattering the birds, which had become quite tame and fearless.

B. J. Pacetti, warden of the reservation, gave chase to the violators of the law but could not overtake them until, reaching Daytona, he secured the assistance of Geo. N. Chamberlain and others, and by means of an automobile overtook the Duponts, and arrested them as they were passing through the draw of the Ormond bridge.

Mr. Pacetti worked faithfully and fearlessly in the discharge of his duty and is to be congratulated upon the outcome of the case, which was the first of its kind in this reservation, and owing to the conviction will probably be the last.

COLORED PEOPLE MAKE THE
OFFICE MORE OF A NUISANCE THAN IT IS WORTH.

Henry T. Titus has resigned the office of justice of the peace, his resignation has been mailed to Governor Gilchrist and the executive will soon appoint another man to fill the unexpired term of the retiring justice.

Mr. Titus has held the office of justice of the peace for the city of Daytona for a number of years and his decision to retire from office at this time comes as a surprise to the people. The reason given by Judge Titus for relinquishing the position is that the colored people, by continuously bringing their troubles to him, make the position more of a nuisance than it is worth. These people not only keep bothering him but frequently appear at his home and annoy his family when he doesn't happen to be at home.

The matter of appointing a successor to Judge Titus for the unexpired term will be up to Governor Gilchrist and the successor will not be known until the appointment is made.

RANGING DETAILS.

Richard H. Dodge, of New York, advertising manager of the "Aerogram," the ocean daily paper published by the United Wireless Company, was in the city Thursday and Friday arranging the details of the installation of the wireless station at the Clarendon hotel.

Mr. Dodge stated that the Clarendon station would have a range of from 700 to 1,100 miles and would be in communication with vessels, fitted with wireless, coming within that radius, as well as with land stations.

One of the main features of the establishment of the station at the Clarendon is the fact that parties at Key West, Havana, Miami or other points in the United Wireless system will be able to engage accommodations at the hotel directly from those places through this medium.

Mr. Dodge departed yesterday afternoon for Jacksonville on his return north.

Cities Show Heavy Growth and Agricultural States Corresponding Decline. Many Remarkable Increases Noted.

The United States census of 1910 shows a population of 92,083,374. This is an increase of 15.1 per cent over the population of 80,064,923 in 1890. The increase is due to a number of causes, but the most important is the immigration from foreign countries. The population of the United States proper, exclusive of Alaska and the island possessions, is 92,083,374. It is quite a showing—over 90,000,000 people for the United States proper, and more than 100,000,000 if we include the United States possessions, consisting of the little brown brother of the Philippines. I defy any human being to form even the remotest conception of what ninety millions mean, but whatever it is we have it.

It is some comfort to know that never in human history has a nation grown so rapidly. Since the republic was founded, a little more than a century ago, we have multiplied our population by thirty. On an average we have doubled our size every twenty-five years. If Senator Hoar was right in declaring that a column of figures could move an American to tears, the whole nation should fairly boo-hoo over the 1910 census.

Cities' Growth Increasing.

The one big fact that stands out of the result is that most of the growth in the last decade has been in the cities. Some of the country districts have actually gone backward. One agricultural state, Iowa, has shown a decrease. Some of the very small towns and villages have shown the same tendency. But the cities from 10,000 upward have almost all advanced, some of them enormously. In the list of the world's ten largest cities the United States has three.

We have one city exceeding 4,000,000 in population, two exceeding 2,000,000, three exceeding 1,000,000, or four if the environs of Boston were included in that city; eight exceeding 500,000, eighteen exceeding 300,000, twenty-eight exceeding 200,000 and fifty exceeding 100,000. These fifty are distributed through twenty-six states. New York, Massachusetts and Ohio each has five; Pennsylvania, California and New Jersey each contains three; Missouri, Michigan, Minnesota, Connecticut and Tennessee can boast two each, and the other fifteen range from Rhode Island to Oregon. At the head of these forty-nine cities stands, of course, New York, at the foot Albany.

Of cities between 25,000 and 100,000 there are 175, with the list yet incomplete. These are distributed through thirty-seven states. Massachusetts heads the list with twenty; Pennsylvania comes next with seventeen; New York follows with sixteen; New Jersey and Illinois have eleven each; Ohio has nine; Texas and Iowa each have eight; Michigan and Wisconsin each boasts seven; California and Connecticut each claims five; Indiana, Virginia and Rhode Island each contains four; Georgia, Kentucky, Missouri and Kansas follow with three each, while there are twelve states with two each and six with one each. Of cities below 25,000 the number is legion. In this class the returns are yet scattering.

Smaller Cities Grow.

On the whole, the smaller cities have grown more rapidly than the larger ones. The rate of increase in those above 100,000 has been 31.8 per cent, while the showing is 39.4 per cent in those between 25,000 and 100,000. Sixteen of these smaller cities have more than doubled their population in the decade. The largest growths have been that of Oklahoma City, which has the enormous percentage of 539.7 increase to its credit. Muskogee, in the same state, is but little behind. Other cities in this group that have trebled or doubled their growth are Pasadena, Berkeley and San Diego, Cal.; Flint, Mich.; Fort Worth, El Paso and Dallas, Tex.; Tampa and Jacksonville, Fla.; Huntington, W. Va.; Schenectady, N. Y.; Tacoma, Wash.; Wichita, Kan., and Waterloo, Ia.

The largest growth in cities of over 100,000 is that of Birmingham, Ala., which increased at the rate of 245.4 per cent. Los Angeles was a close second with 211.3 per cent. Seattle had 194 per cent. Other cities in this class that more than doubled their population were Portland, Ore.; Spokane, Wash., and Oakland, Cal. Notable gains were also made by Cleveland, Detroit, Minneapolis, Denver, Atlanta and Richmond.

One most striking feature of the returns is the growth of the south, especially of southern cities. Charlotte, N. C.; Chattanooga, Tenn.; Lynchburg, Va.; Macon, Ga.; Norfolk, Va.; Portsmouth, Va.; Roanoke, Va.; Shreveport, La., and several other cities, in addition to those already mentioned, show something of the advance movement in the new south.

San Francisco Undaunted.

Another pleasing fact is that despite her disastrous earthquake and fire San Francisco has increased from 342,782 in 1900 to 416,912 in 1910. Oakland and Berkeley are virtually parts of San Francisco, and both have grown prodigiously. If the two be added to the larger city the total population is increased to more than 600,000. Moreover, the enormous increase of Los Angeles and other California cities shows something of the growth that might have taken place in San Francisco had it not been for her disaster.

*The figures for 1890 given in the preliminary state announcements did not include the Indians specially enumerated.
†Includes 953,243 persons in Porto Rico (1899 census).
‡Decrease.

$According to the census of Porto Rico, taken in 1899 under the direction of the war department.

Taking the cities of Los Angeles, Oakland, Berkeley, Sacramento, San Diego, San Jose and Pasadena, they show an aggregate increase from 260,252 in 1900 to 653,317 in 1910, or 151 per cent. If San Francisco had enjoyed a like growth she would have had in 1910 a total of 800,383.

While it is too much to claim that but for her calamity she might have reached this result, since a large city is not apt to show as great a percentage of increase as a small one under similar conditions, it is entirely within bounds to say that the city beside the Golden Gate would have gone up to a half million or 600,000 but for her disaster. The more force is lent to this contention by the fact that some of the increase in other California cities is due to the fugitives from San Francisco.

Boston's Suburbs Separate.

The Bostonians claim that the census figures represent only a part of the population of their city, since Boston actually includes Cambridge and a number of other cities that are returned separately. If there were a greater Boston, as there is a greater New York, her population would be 1,206,791 instead of the 670,585 now returned.

In like manner the Twin Cities in sort, however, is that of New York and the cluster of cities and villages in northern New Jersey. For twenty or thirty miles, or even more, men commute daily from New Jersey into New York. In business interests and in all other ways, except that of residence, they are as much New Yorkers as those living on Manhattan Island.

State Lines Retard Totals.

All the expansions mentioned could be readily made, since the cities to be consolidated are in the same states. There are a number of cases, however, where state lines intervene. Notable among these are Kansas City, Mo., and Kansas City, Kan.; Omaha, Neb., and Council Bluffs, Ia., furnish another case in point, and so do St. Louis, Mo., and East St. Louis, Ill. Then there are Cincinnati, O., and Covington, Ky.; also Philadelphia, Pa., and Camden, N. J. Chicago would also gain enormously by adding contiguous Indiana territory.

The most conspicuous case of the

New York commuters, but the vast majority are.

Gotham's Radius Large.

Besides, Yonkers, Mount Vernon, New Rochelle and other cities in New York state are really a part of New York city, although not in the corporate limits. A large number of commuters also go into Connecticut. If all of these were added to the metropolis its total population would probably exceed 6,000,000.

The states likewise show gains. New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and Ohio retain their relative rank as first, second, third and fourth respectively, but there is a shift in fifth place and in most of the others. Texas goes to fifth place, Massachusetts to sixth, and Missouri becomes seventh. The state of Washington shows the greatest growth in the decade, with Oklahoma a close second. Both have more than doubled their populations. Nevada has also shown a great growth, although she remains at the foot of the list despite her gain. Others that show phenomenal growth are New Mexico, California, Colorado, Florida, Oregon, the two Dakotas and Washington. The average increase the country over is approximately 20 per cent. A comparison shows that the great industrial states are well over this figure, while the agricultural states usually fall behind.

The most phenomenal growth in the entire nation, outside of one or two of the recently admitted commonwealths, is on the Pacific coast. The south averages well and has kept abreast of the entire country. The states without industries other than farming are the ones that suffer most. Yet a close analysis shows that the loss here has not been so much in the rural districts themselves as in the small villages and towns.

Padding Causes Recounts.

Several western cities were accused of padding, and recounts were ordered. The most conspicuous cases were those of Seattle, Tacoma and one other city in Washington. Portland, Ore.; Fort Smith, Ark., and some others were also involved. Reductions were made by the recounts, and a few enumerators were arrested. The reverse process occurred in Atlantic City, N. J. There the mayor complained that the showing was too small, and a recount showed a slight increase.

Taking the country as a whole, we are a rather large proposition. One prophet looks ahead 250 years and says we shall then have one-half the people on the globe, a trifle under 2,000,000,000, to be prophetically exact—evidently a case of census figures on the brain. But without boasting we are a mighty people, not only when counted by the head, but when measured by other standards—for example, the power to do things. As for the future, we still have plenty of room, and who can set the bounds on the coming years?

GROWTH IN 120 YEARS.

The first census of the United States was taken in 1790. There were at that time seventeen states. The total population of the nation was 3,929,214.

DICKINSON NOT TO REPLY TO DEMAND OF THE HOUSE.

INFORMS MEMBERS PUBLIC INTERESTS FORBID FURTHER PUBLICITY ON QUESTION OF DEFENSES.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—Secretary of War Dickinson today sent a letter to the house of representatives informing the members that he would make no reply to the McLachlan resolution because the public interests at this time forbid further publicity on the question of our national defenses.

The administration is making every possible effort to hold down the lid on the war scare which has followed the recent report by Dickinson.

A SURPRISED PARTY AT MRS. L. HOBBS' ART STORE.

A Daily News representative, while passing Mrs. L. Hobbs' art store on Magnolia avenue yesterday afternoon, heard such a chorus of feminine shrieks and laughter that he concluded a celebration of the completion of the new building was in progress and headed for the entrance with the idea of a write-up in mind.

On opening the door, the scene presented conveyed the impression that a little, harmless mouse had just crossed the floor, but later he discovered that it was merely a burst of youthful spirit and display of agile grace upon the part of a group of Mrs. Hobbs' usually sedate patrons. The surprise it may be said was with the Daily News man as well as with the ladies. Unfortunately his entrance put a damper on the gaily prevailing.

FAMOUS PICTURE FOUND— MISSING FOR 160 YEARS

VIENNA, Dec. 17.—A report of the accidental discovery among some pictures at Schwarzen, the country seat of the Duke of Parma, of a picture by Valazquez, which had been missing for 160 years, is published in the Wiener Journal. The picture is said to be an equestrian portrait of Philip IV. of Spain, painted in 1632.

According to the Journal the picture has already been sold to an English firm of art dealers for $400,000. No confirmation of the report is as yet forthcoming in Vienna. The Duke of Parma is known to have a valuable collection of old portraits, heirlooms of the Bourbons.

JUDGE STEWART IN TILT WITH DEPUTY SHERIFF.

Gross. The two had met some time before in the postoffice, where, it is said, they had had some words over matter involving $50, which Gross claimed Stewart owed him. Judge Stewart walked from the postoffice to a place in front of the Landis & Fish office, where he became engaged in conversation with Judge Bert Fish. Shortly afterward Mr. Gross came from the postoffice and walked over to where the two were standing and during another argument he poked Judge Stewart in the face.

Five Michigan towns turn out three-fourths of this country's automobile product.

M. Bordenal, a French manufacturer, has designed a special automobile for invalids and convalescents. The machine looks like a bathtub on wheels.

Consul General Philip G. Hanna of Monterey writes that, while three years ago automobiles were hardly known in that city, today thirty-two cars appear on the city register, 80 per cent of which are American made.
